

1. Policy Intent

This policy is designed to protect the interests of Council and Committee Members (Members) and employees (including past Members and former employees) where they become involved in legal proceedings as a result of performing their normal duties. In most situations the Shire of Murray (Shire) may assist the individual in meeting reasonable expenses and any liabilities incurred in relation to these proceedings.

2. Definitions

'approved lawyer' means a 'certified practitioner' (as defined in the Legal Practice Act 2003) who is from a law firm on the Shire's panel of legal service providers, unless the Council or Chief Executive Officer (CEO) considers that this is not appropriate – for example, where there is or may be a conflict of interest.

'Member' means the Shire President, Deputy Shire President, Councillors and Committee Members.

'employee' means an employee of the Shire.

'improper conduct' means a breach of the standards of conduct that a reasonable person would expect of a person knowing their duties, powers and authority.

'legal proceedings' may be civil or criminal.

'legal representation' means the provision of legal services, to or on behalf of a Member or employee, by an approved lawyer that is in respect of:

- a matter or matters arising from the performance of the functions of the Member or employee; and
- legal proceedings involving the Member or employee that have been, or may be, commenced.

'legal representation costs' are the costs, including fees and disbursements, properly incurred in providing legal representation.

'legal services' includes advice, representation or documentation that is provided by an approved lawyer.

'Shire' means the Shire of Murray.

3. Policy Statement

This Policy facilitates Members and employee's access to legal advice and representation:

- Where enabled in legislation;
- The matter falls within the scope and application of the Policy; and
- Relates to the role and functions of the Member or employee subject to considerations of this Policy.

Members and employees of the Shire performing their statutory roles and functions, may occasionally in the course of their duties, be exposed to legal action initiated by third parties. In these circumstances Members and employees may require legal advice and/or representation and should be able to expect the Shire to provide financial assistance to meet the cost of the advice or representation. Accordingly, it is appropriate and prudent for the Shire to be in a position to assist members and employees by adopting a policy to fund or partly fund the cost of providing legal services in appropriate circumstances.

4. Legislative Framework

Section 9.56 of the Local Government Act 1995 (Act) provides protection from actions of tort for anything a member of the council, or a member of a committee of the council or an employee has, in good faith, done in the performance or purported performance of a function under the Act or under any other written law.

However, the legislation does not preclude people taking-action against individual Members or employees if they believe that the Member or employee has not acted in good faith.

Section 3.1 of the Act provides that the general function of a local government is to provide for the good government of persons in its district. Section 6.7(2) of the Act provides that money held in the municipal fund may be applied towards the performance of the functions and the exercise of the powers conferred on the local government by the Act or any other written law. Under these provisions a local government can expend funds to provide legal representation for Members and employees as long as it believes that the expenditure falls within the scope of the local government's function.

5. Scope

This policy is applicable to all current and former Members and employees where the following may apply:
