Shire of Murray

Socially Active Seniors Program

Have fun with friends, meet new residents and learn something new by participating in the plethora of planned activities.

October 2026 - March 2027

Socially Active Seniors Program

One of our key aspirations at the Shire of Murray is that our community enjoys excellent health, wellbeing, and quality of life.

Along with the Murray Library and the Murray Aquatic and Leisure Centre (MALC), we support a range of activities and programs for seniors throughout the year delivered by the vast array of local community groups, organisations and sporting clubs.

This guide showcases a stack of great activities held in the Murray area for our senior residents to participate in. Have fun with friends, meet new residents and learn something new by participating in the plethora of planned activities.

For more information on the activities, contact the Shire of Murray on 9531 7777 or by emailing mailbag@murray.wa.gov.au. You can also follow the Shire of Murray on Facebook and Instagram to stay up-to-date with what's on in Murray – @shireofmurray.
