Activity #1: Make a Diva Microphone

What you need:

- Cardboard roll (cut down to desired height)
 - Polystyrene ball (or other light weight tennis-sized ball)
 - Aluminium foil
 - Decorative tape (e.g. Washi tape)
 - Paint (optional)
 - Textas (optional)
 - Stickers and sticky gems (optional)
- Paint your cardboard roll and set aside to dry. Alternatively, you can colour your cardboard roll with textas.
- Cut a large piece of aluminium foil, and wrap around the ball, scrunching the excess corners of the foil together to create a handle.
- Once the cardboard roll is dry, insert the foil handle into the cardboard roll, and secure in place with decorative tape.
- Embellish your microphone with stickers or sticky gems.

Use your new microphone to wow and dazzle your family with a song.

Activity # 2: Make Whitney & Britney Egg Cosies

What you need:

- Pink, blue and yellow felt pieces
 - Greylead pencil
 - Scissors
 - Needle and thread
 - Googly eyes
 - Hot glue gun and glue
 - Bling (e.g. glittery fabric, sequins, feathers etc.)
- Use a greylead pencil to draw half-egg or half-oval shapes onto the blue and pink felt pieces, at least 6cm wide and 5 cm tall (large enough to fit over an egg).
 - Cut the two half-egg shapes from the pink and blue felt (you will need two pink shapes and two blue shapes).
 - Use a simple running stitch or overstitch to sew the edges of the felt together leaving the bottom unstitched to fit over the egg. Alternatively, you can glue the edges instead of sewing them together.
 - Glue googly eyes to the front of each egg cosy.
 - Cut a small triangle from the yellow felt and glue it under the googly eyes for a beak.
 - Glue bling to the comb/crest of the chickens (top of their heads) and set aside to dry.

Sit Whitney and Britney over your boiled eggs to keep them warm for breakfast.
